CHURCHES

LANE TABERNACLE

The Southeast Missouri and Illinois conference opened Wednesday morning with Bishop M. P. Jamison of the 5th Episcopal District, presiding. Bishop Jamison although an arbitrary or dictatorial, presides splendidly and keeps complete order at all times. The delegates began to arrive Tuesday morning and by Wednesday evening were all in. Rev. J. A. Winters of Chicago is present and from the smile on his face our predictions are a round report from the Windy City. Bishop Jamison came here from Kansas City after closing the Missouri and Kansas conference which was in session last week. This conference is expected to surpass all other conferences. Sunday when the great rally will be launched for education and missions. Rev. J. C. Martin, manager of the C. M. E. publishing house in Jackson, Tenn., is a prominent figure in the conference. Rev. Smith, the host, is very much pleased with the way the members are taking care of the delegates. Several of the members will be disappointed as the pastor will not be able to supply all with a guest while the conference is in session. Bishop Jamison will preach Sunday morning. Everyone is invited to hear him. Sunday evening the Epworth League will render a special program from 6 to 7:30. Saturday evening the conference will suspend all business and turn their attention to Bishop Jamison who will be given a grand reception in gratitude to the excellent work he has done in the northern part of the 5th Episcopal district. The conference will close Sunday night when the reports will be read and the preachers will receive their appointments for the next conference year.

For a Fair Street Railway Settlement

A Plain Matter of Justice and Common Sense

"Please state briefly just what the United Railways Company wants the City Government to do, and why". The above request from a citizen calls for the following reply:

With regard to taxes—

We want the City Government to quit taxing us $480,000 a year, or any other sum, on property we don't own—on franchise values which the State confiscated in 1913.

We want the City Government to be content with our $660,000 a year of general property and paving taxes, which is more than our full, fair share of the public tax burden.

We want the City Government to let us use that $480,000 a year for better service, better wages and a fair dividend on investment recognized by the City.

We want the City Government to treat the street railway system as a public service whose efficiency is vital to the public's health and comfort, and not as a source of political revenue.

With regard to franchises—

We want the City Government to quit fighting our existing franchises.

We want it either to drop its suits against them; or to confirm them for all our lines to 1946 in a new ordinance; or in the public's interest, to extend them fifty years as it offered to do last July.

We want the City Government in one of these ways to guarantee our right to do business for a term of years, so that we may be able to get new capital at a fair rate to refund bonded debt and extend the system as the City may require.

We want the City Government, in short, to pull with us in giving St. Louis more and better service at cost, instead of double-taxing us for political purposes and otherwise pulling against us to prevent better service.

We believe a large majority of the men and women of St. Louis now endorse all we have asked of the City Government.

We believe a large majority of the members of the City government would vote for it in a minute—as a plain matter of justice and common sense—if some of them were not afraid of being censured by chronic objectors for "favoring the traction monopoly".

We are not asking for favors.

We are not proposing to buy anything from anybody at City Hall.

We are not asking for a monopoly, nor for subway nor rapid transit franchises.

We are not asking to be relieved of payment of the $2,100,000 of accrued mill tax, although most of it is a tax on property we didn't own when it was levied. We do ask leave to pay it in ten yearly installments, as we earn the money, and we ask that we be not required to pay interest on that extortionate and unjust tax.

We ask only that the City Government shall hereafter tax us fairly—the same as all other St. Louis businesses; that it shall quit destroying our credit; that it make us free under City and State regulation to give St. Louis the best street railway service the fare-box earnings will pay for.

We have gone straight to the people of St. Louis with all the facts. We knew we couldn't hope for any relief until the people knew all of the facts and were ready to order and approve proper action by the city Government. The old days and the old ways are gone—navar to return. Today it's for the people to say what shall be done—and it will be done.

There may be a few citizens who would be glad to see the City Government drive this Company into bankruptcy, rob our thousands of St. Louis security holders of their equities, and risk the loss of the city-wide free transfer system. There can't be many. The great majority of St. Louis men and women are bound to be fair and sensible.

It's for you to say, and say quickly, whether you want this business operated as a political gold mine, or as a prosperous street railway system ready and able to meet all reasonable demands for increased and improved service.

25,000 BID FAREWELL TO DRAFTED SAINT LOUIS COLORED MEN

Chas. A. Mittle, of the Keystone Cafe, assisted by Wendell Gross and Glens Smith, a purse was raised and a big parade given before train time. The parade was up by the city and the subscription list was made up by patrons of the cafe. The formation of the parade consisted of the drafted men, a couple of hundred of their friends, the physician and the yellow-bellied and citizens in automobiles.

The line of march was over the main streets of the ward and to the station. A continuous stream of citizens followed north to the station from 6:30 until the train pulled out at half past eight. The fifth word men also marched to the station behind a band. Drafts from other wards came on street cars and in automobiles. Many of the autos were driven by wealthy white owners or their chauffeurs. Several of the words carried banners with inscriptions similar to the ones used by white counterparts this fall. All the men were tape indicating the district they belonged to.

Southerners To Camp Dodge
Several hundred colored, southern drafted men passed through St. Louis Monday and Tuesday from Arkansas and other states enroute to Camp Dodge, Fort Des Moines, Iowa. Coming from a warm climate most of the men were thinly clad and were uncomfortable in the cold temperature which ranged from three above to five below freezing during the day.

SOME INTERESTING FACTS

The following words furnished St. Louis' first draft quota of 100 colored men to the National Army: 1st 3, 2nd 3, 3rd 1, 4th 24, 5th 53, 6th 108, 7th 19, 8th 4, 9th 0, 10th 0, 11th 1, 12th 1, 13th 0, 14th 2, 15th 0, 16th 57, 17th 115, 18th 1, 19th 43, 20th 0, 21st 0, 22nd 31, 23rd 40, 24th 5, 25th 14, 26th 14, 27th 3, 28th 16.

St. Louis will furnish 1,500 colored men in the Government's intended draft of two million.

Eighty-one colored officers have been assigned to Camp Funston, where the St. Louis men will be trained, to wit: 15 Captains, 46 First Lieutenants, 21 Second Lieutenants.

Six hundred twenty four colored officers have been assigned to seven cantonments: Captains 106, 1st Lieuts. 210, 2nd Lieuts. 192. These men have been promised the same opportunity for promotions that the whites will receive. No southern camps were selected for Negro conscripts, the 10,000 men being distributed among the following: Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill.; Meade, Annapolis, Md.; Fort Funston, Fort Riley, Kansas; Pines, Long Island, N. Y.; Dix, Washington, N. C.; Indigo, Fort Des Moines, Ia.; Sherman, Chillicothe, Mo.

St. Louis Officers have assigned as follows: First Lieutenants, Pearling, Lorne and Stewart to transit; First Lieutenants, Brown, Brown, Brown, Brown and Watkins to Funston; Captains, Sanford and Green to Upton; First Lieutenants, Taylor and Vaughn to Fort Second; First Lieutenants, Garrett to Sherman.

25,000 St. Louis men have entered war duty to date. Only 4,377 have been drafted, the others being volunteer. Negroes were not permitted to volunteer.

The war department plans to combine all remaining registered men and arrange them in five classes according to dependents and industrial pursuits. From then the balance of the two million soldiers will be selected. It will take two years to transport this number to France.

NEGROES BUY LIBERTY BONDS

Thirteen Negro employees at the P. & Q. Quartermaster's Depot, in St. Louis bought $1,200 worth of Liberty Bonds. Chas. Logan purchased $500 worth and John Williams $250. Both paid cash. The others bought one $50 bond each.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of my dear beloved wife, Sophia Baker, who departed this life Sunday, Nov. 2nd, 1913, four years ago.

There are griefs that cannot find comfort, And wounds that cannot be healed. There are sorrows so deep in the human heart,

They cannot be half revealed. God is my strong consolation. What have I to fear, To darkness and temptation, My light and my help is near.

Though hopes came around me, Firm to the light I'll stand; With terror can confront me, With God at my right hand.

Sally missed by sisters and husband, Capt. Clarence W. Salter.

IN MEMORIAM
In memory of our dear beloved mother and wife, Nancy Vails. The month of November again is here. This day one year to us the saddest of the year.

It took from us November the 8th day Our darling sweet Mother, away.

A precious one from us has gone, The voice we love is still; A voice is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled.

Just one year ago today, Since our darling mother passed away, O, Lord keep green the grave that lies beneath the wide and starry sky; Keep sweet with sleep and give her rest.

Whose hands are folded on her breast, A loving mother, true and kind, No one on earth like her will find. God called her home, it was His will. But in our hearts, she lingers still. For all of us who did her best, May God grant her eternal rest. Sadly missed by husband, sons, daughters and grandchildren. George Vails, husband.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to extend our sincere thanks to friends and neighbors for their sympathy shown during the illness and death of our dear daughter and sister, Mrs. Ida Green, who departed this life Wednesday, October 17. Also for the beautiful floral offering from the Neumiller Art Club and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. White, parents. Mrs. Geo. Chastin, sister, leader and Chester White, brothers.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our thanks to our many friends for their kindness and sympathy shown us during our bereavement in the death of our husband and father, Alexander Edward, for the many beautiful floral offerings. We wish especially to thank the City Relief Club, also Rev. Howard for his prayers and comforting words, and last, but not least, the Hughes' Undertaking Co. for their efficiency in handling the remains.

Mrs. Label Edmond and daughter

Treat Your Wife and Family Right
BUY THEM A HOUSE FOR—
It makes a woman proud to be able to say, "This is my property." and "We are buying this place."
Say what you will or say, the fact remains that the more a woman has in investment on earth is in the earth. Real estate is the basis of all wealth and nothing else provides more conservatively a man's progressiveness than that of owning Real Estate.
I have heard some men say that the reason they would not buy property was, "because their wives would get part of their earnings if they were decided to part, but the husband who buys Real Estate leaves his family and wants to make them happy, and that's one business."
We have bargains in Real Estate for cash or easy monthly payments.

LONG HAIR THAT IS SOFT, SMOOTH AND GLOSSY.

QUINAIDE, invented by a New York Chemist, Stimulates and Nourishes The Roots of the Hair.

Just as a good fertilizer nourishes the soil and produces a rich crop of wheat or corn, so will the proper remedy create a healthy condition of the scalp, and promote the growth of the hair.

QUINAIDE stimulates and nourishes the roots of the hair, thereby creating a healthy growth.

QUINAIDE was invented by a New York chemist, and is made under the personal supervision of a registered pharmacist of over twenty-five years' experience.

Both articles are sold by druggists and dealers at 25c each, or will be sent direct by Quinoid Drug Co., 79 E. 130th St., New York City, on receipt of price. Write for sample of QUINAIDE, mentioning the name of this paper.
